RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE NOTES

Prospective investors should read the entire Base Prospectus, this Drawdown Prospectus and the Issue Terms contained herein. Words and expressions defined elsewhere in this Drawdown Prospectus or the Base Prospectus (as the case may be) have the same meanings in this section.

Prospective investors should consider the section entitled "Risk Factors" on pages 1 to 14 of the Registration Document in respect of the Issuer (referred to in the section entitled "Incorporation by Reference" in this Drawdown Prospectus) and the factors described below and consult with their own professional advisers if they consider it necessary. The Issuer believes that such factors represent the principal risks inherent in investing in the Notes but the inability of the Issuer to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with the Notes may occur for other reasons, which may not be considered significant risks by the Issuer based on information currently available to it or which it may not currently be able to anticipate.

The Issuer disclaims any responsibility to advise prospective purchasers of any matters arising under the laws of the country in which they reside that may affect the purchase, holding, or receipt of payments on the Notes. Each investor should carefully consider whether the Notes, as described in this Drawdown Prospectus and in the Issue Terms contained herein, are suited to its particular circumstances before deciding to purchase the Notes.

Risks relating to the Issuer

Risks relating to the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations with respect to the Notes can be found on pages 1 to 14 of the Registration Document dated 10 June 2016 in the section headed "Risk Factors" which has been incorporated by reference on page 3 of this Drawdown Prospectus.

Risks relating to the Notes

Any prospective investor in the Notes should also read and evaluate the risks found in the section headed "Risk Factors – Risks relating to the Notes" on pages 1 to 8 of the Base Prospectus.

Risks relating to the Secured Assets

Any prospective investor in the Notes should also read and evaluate the risks found in the section headed "Risk Factors – Risks relating to the Secured Assets" on pages 8 to 11 of the Base Prospectus.

Eligible Collateral

The Posted Collateral in respect of the Notes will include all forms of Posted Euroclear Collateral. Further information in respect of the Eligible Collateral, and the terms on which such assets will constitute Posted Collateral in respect of the Notes is set out in Part C (Collateral Schedule) of the Issue Terms contained herein.

Substitution and Withdrawal

Investors in the Notes should be aware that the Issuer may on any Business Day, without the consent of the Trustee, substitute Posted Collateral with other Eligible Collateral. Further, the Issuer will substitute any Posted Collateral that does not meet the Eligibility Criteria with other Eligible Collateral, subject to certain provisions contained in the Trust Deed, the Collateral Service Agreement and the Issue Terms contained herein.

The Issuer may also, on any Business Day, withdraw any Posted Collateral from the Custody Account without the consent of the Trustee provided that following any such withdrawal the aggregate Value of the Posted Collateral (as determined by the relevant Verification Agent) is greater than or equal to the greater of (i) the aggregate of any early redemption amounts that the Issuer would be required to pay to Noteholders in respect of such Series of Notes and (ii) the Minimum Collateralisation Value. The Trustee is not responsible for verifying the Value of the Posted Collateral following any such withdrawal.

Collateral Administrator

MSI plc, as the Collateral Administrator in respect of the Notes, will perform certain functions in respect of the Posted Collateral. Investors should note the risks set out in the section headed "Risks relating to the Notes – Risks relating to the Collateral Administrator" on page 3 of the Base Prospectus.

UNITED KINGDOM TAXATION

The following is a summary of the United Kingdom withholding taxation treatment at the date hereof in relation to payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes. The comments do not deal with other United Kingdom tax aspects of acquiring, holding, disposing of, or abandoning Notes. Transactions involving Notes, including the issue and subscription of Notes, any purchase or disposal or settlement of Notes, may have United Kingdom tax consequences for potential purchasers (including but not limited to, transfer taxes and possible withholding or deduction for or on account of United Kingdom tax from payments made in respect of the Notes). The tax consequences may depend, amongst other things, on the status of the potential investor and the terms and conditions of a particular Note as specified in the Issue Terms. It is based on current law and practice of HM Revenue and Customs ("HMRC"), which may be subject to change, sometimes with retrospective effect. The comments relate only to the position of persons who are absolute beneficial owners of the Notes. Prospective Noteholders should be aware that the particular terms of issue of any series of Notes as specified in the applicable Issue Terms may affect the tax treatment of that and other series of Notes. The following is a general guide and should be treated with appropriate caution. It is not intended as tax advice and it does not purport to describe all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a prospective purchaser. Prospective Noteholders who are in any doubt as to their tax position should consult their professional advisors about tax implications of purchasing and holding a Note, any transaction involving a Note, and any transaction involved in the exercise and settlement of a Note. Noteholders who may be liable to taxation in jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom are particularly advised to consult their professional advisors as to whether they are so liable (and if so under the laws of which jurisdictions), since the following comments relate only to certain United Kingdom withholding taxation aspects of payments in respect of the Notes. In particular, Noteholders should be aware that they may be liable to taxation under the laws of other jurisdictions in relation to payments in respect of the Notes even if such payments may be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of taxation under the laws of the United Kingdom.

A. Notes - UK Withholding Tax on Interest Payments by the Issuer

UK Notes listed on a recognised stock exchange

1. The Notes issued by the Issuer which carry a right to interest ("UK Notes") will constitute "quoted Eurobonds" provided they are and continue to be listed on a recognised stock exchange. Whilst the UK Notes are and continue to be quoted Eurobonds, payments of interest on the UK Notes may be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of United Kingdom income tax. Securities will be "listed on a recognised stock exchange" for this purpose if they are admitted to trading on an exchange designated as a recognised stock exchange by an order made by the Commissioners for HMRC and either they are included in the United Kingdom official list (within the meaning of Part 6 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) or they are officially listed, in accordance with provisions corresponding to those generally applicable in European Economic Area states, in a country outside the United Kingdom in which there is a recognised stock exchange.
2. The Irish Stock Exchange is a recognised stock exchange. The Issuer's understanding of current HMRC practice is that securities which are officially listed and admitted to trading on the main market of that Exchange may be regarded as "listed on a recognised stock exchange" for these purposes.

All UK Notes

3. In addition to the exemption set out in A.1 above, interest on the UK Notes may be paid without withholding or deduction for or on account of United Kingdom income tax so long as the Issuer is authorised for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and its business consists wholly or mainly of dealing in financial instruments (as defined by section 984 of the Income Tax Act 2007) as principal and so long as such payments are made by the Issuer in the ordinary course of that business.
4. Interest on the Notes may also be paid without withholding or deduction for or on account of United Kingdom income tax to the extent the Notes constitute "regulatory capital securities" for the purposes of the Taxation of Regulatory Capital Securities Regulations 2013. This exemption will not apply where there are arrangements, the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of which is to obtain a tax advantage as a result of the application of those Regulations in respect of the Notes. The exception described in paragraph 3 above does not apply in relation to payments of interest on regulatory capital securities.

5. In all cases falling outside the exemptions described above, interest on the UK Notes may fall to be paid under deduction of United Kingdom income tax at the basic rate (currently 20%) subject to such relief as may be available following a direction from HMRC pursuant to the provisions of any applicable double taxation treaty, or to any other exemption which may apply. However, this withholding will not apply if the relevant interest is paid on Notes with a maturity date of less than one year from the date of issue and which are not issued under arrangements the effect of which is to render such Notes part of a borrowing with a total term of a year or more.

B. Other Rules Relating to United Kingdom Withholding Tax

1. Notes may be issued at an issue price of less than 100 per cent. Of their principal amount. Any discount element on any such Notes will not generally be subject to any United Kingdom withholding tax pursuant to the provisions mentioned above, but may be subject to reporting requirements as outlined above.
2. Where Notes are to be, or may fall to be, redeemed at a premium, as opposed to being issued at a discount, then any such element of premium may constitute a payment of interest. Payments of interest are subject to United Kingdom withholding tax and reporting requirements as outlined above.
3. Where interest has been paid under deduction of United Kingdom income tax, Noteholders who are not resident in the United Kingdom may be able to recover all or part of the tax deducted if there is an appropriate provision in any applicable double taxation treaty.
4. The references to "interest" above mean "interest" as understood in United Kingdom tax law. The statements above do not take any account of any different definitions of "interest" or "principal" which may prevail under any other law or which may be created by the terms and conditions of the Notes or any related documentation. Where a payment on a Note does not constitute (or is not treated as) interest for United Kingdom tax purposes, and the payment has a United Kingdom source, it would potentially be subject to United Kingdom withholding tax if, for example, it constitutes (or is treated as) an annual payment or a manufactured payment, rent or royalties for United Kingdom tax purposes. Where a payment is subject to United Kingdom withholding tax, depending on the nature of the payment (which will be determined by, amongst other things, the terms and conditions specified by the Issue Terms of the Note), the payment may fall to be made under deduction of United Kingdom tax (the rate of withholding depending on the nature of the payment), subject to any exemption from withholding which may apply and to such relief as may be available under the provisions of any applicable double tax treaty.
