This is a transcript of text in the video titled “What advice do you have for someone thinking of applying for a role with Central Bank of Ireland”

Don't be put off by what the Central Bank is and does because it does a lot more than you think it will.

I'd say definitely go on to the Central Bank's website and have a read about what the Bank actually does.

And I'd say go in open minded knowing that there are so many different roles you could do in the Bank.

It's not just kind of Regulation or Supervision.

There's so many different support teams or different areas you can work in.

I still have imposter syndrome sometimes in the Bank thinking like, I don't have the skills for this or the know-how for this. Yeah, how did I get to this?

But definitely still apply, because I think the Bank is always looking for a vast range of different people, like different backgrounds.

So yeah, definitely just give it a go.
