Dear Central Bank,

Re: Consultation Paper 161: Consultation on proposed amendments to the Central Bank UCITS Regulations and the Central Bank Guidance on performance fees for UCITS and certain types of Retail Investor AIFs

Arthur Cox LLP is pleased to respond to Consultation Paper 161 ("CP 161") regarding the proposed amendments to the Central Bank UCITS Regulations and the Central Bank Guidance on performance fees for UCITS and certain types of Retail Investor AIFs. As one of Ireland's leading law firms, we have a long-standing commitment to supporting the evolution and competitiveness of Ireland's investment funds sector.

Arthur Cox has played a central role in shaping the industry's response to CP 161, drawing on our deep expertise in advising UCITS funds and fund managers.

Arthur Cox has been heavily involved in the preparation and review of the Irish Funds response to CP 161 and, as such, wish to express our full support for the detailed submissions made in that response.

Arthur Cox would welcome the opportunity to continue our engagement with the Central Bank, including participation in any workshops or other output from CP 161, and to contribute to the ongoing development of Ireland's investment funds regulatory framework.

Yours faithfully

Arthur Cox
