

Note from the Central Bank of Ireland

The Central Bank thanks everyone who made submissions in response to Consultation Paper 53 on the Corporate Governance Code for captive Insurance and captive Reinsurance Undertakings. All of the comments received by close of business on 10 June on CP53 have now been published. Any views or opinions presented in the submissions are those of the authors of those documents. The responses are currently being considered by the Central Bank.