Dear Cathaoirleach,

Thank you for your letter of 11 September 2026 seeking an update with regard to certain matters relating to the Israeli Bond Programme.

As you know, the Central Bank is bound by statutory professional secrecy obligations, which prevent the disclosure of confidential supervisory information. We cannot provide details regarding any engagement with an individual issuer or other authorities.

All prospectus documentation approved by, or final terms filed with, national competent authorities in the European Economic Area are publicly available on the European Securities and Market Authority's prospectus register¹. The Central Bank of Ireland also publishes on its website a list of all prospectuses² it has approved, including a hyperlink to a dedicated website section provided by the issuer.

As of the date of this letter, the above registers do not disclose that a 2026 Prospectus has been approved by the Central Bank or another EU Member State competent authority for the State of Israel.
